

What do you need to attend a virtual visit?

- Necessary equipment (desktop or laptop computer with a camera and microphone, tablet, or smartphone).
- Internet access with at least 10 Mbps speed.
- The link to the virtual encounter found in the invitation email sent by your health professional.
- If you are unsure about the performance of your audio-visual equipment or internet connection, you can test these parameters by clicking here to access a page designed for this purpose.

VERY IMPORTANT:

- You should test using Zoom at least one day prior to your virtual encounter by clicking the following link <https://zoom.us/test>. It will help you get familiar with Zoom and make sure that your microphone and camera are working properly.

On the day of the appointment

- Have your phone nearby during the virtual visit so the health professional can contact you should there be technical problems.
- Have your health insurance card handy.
- Find a quiet private room to ensure confidentiality.
- Use earphones or a headset for optimal sound.
- Avoid sitting with your back to a window to prevent backlighting.
- Limit Internet access during your telehealth appointment.

Bienvenue à votre visite virtuelle de santé

zoom
Quebec

Clinique Dr Thomas

Veillez attendre que votre professionnel de la santé vous admette à votre consultation virtuelle.

Please wait for your health professional to admit you to your virtual consultation.

BE PATIENT: Just like in a real clinic, only one patient can be seen at a time. You will be transferred to a virtual waiting room.

2. During the visit

- You will be able to see and communicate with the health professional.
- The health professional will be in a private room. If not, he must inform you.

Be prepared:

- ✓ The health professional can ask you to confirm your identity or to show your health insurance card.
- ✓ He may ask to see a specific part of your body (for example, a wound or your ankles) as if you were seeing him in person.

3. After the visit

- The health professional will give his recommendations.
- He can also forward a prescription to your pharmacy, as needed.
- A follow-up or in-person meeting may be required.

4. Ending the meeting

- The health professional can end the Zoom meeting.
- You can also leave the meeting by clicking the Leave button, shown on the lower right corner of the screen.
